

A landscape photograph showing a grassy hill under a clear blue sky. A red wind turbine is prominent on the hill, with two communication towers to its left. In the foreground, there is a stream with some water pools. The text 'Beinneun 2' is overlaid in the center.

Beinneun 2

Where we are

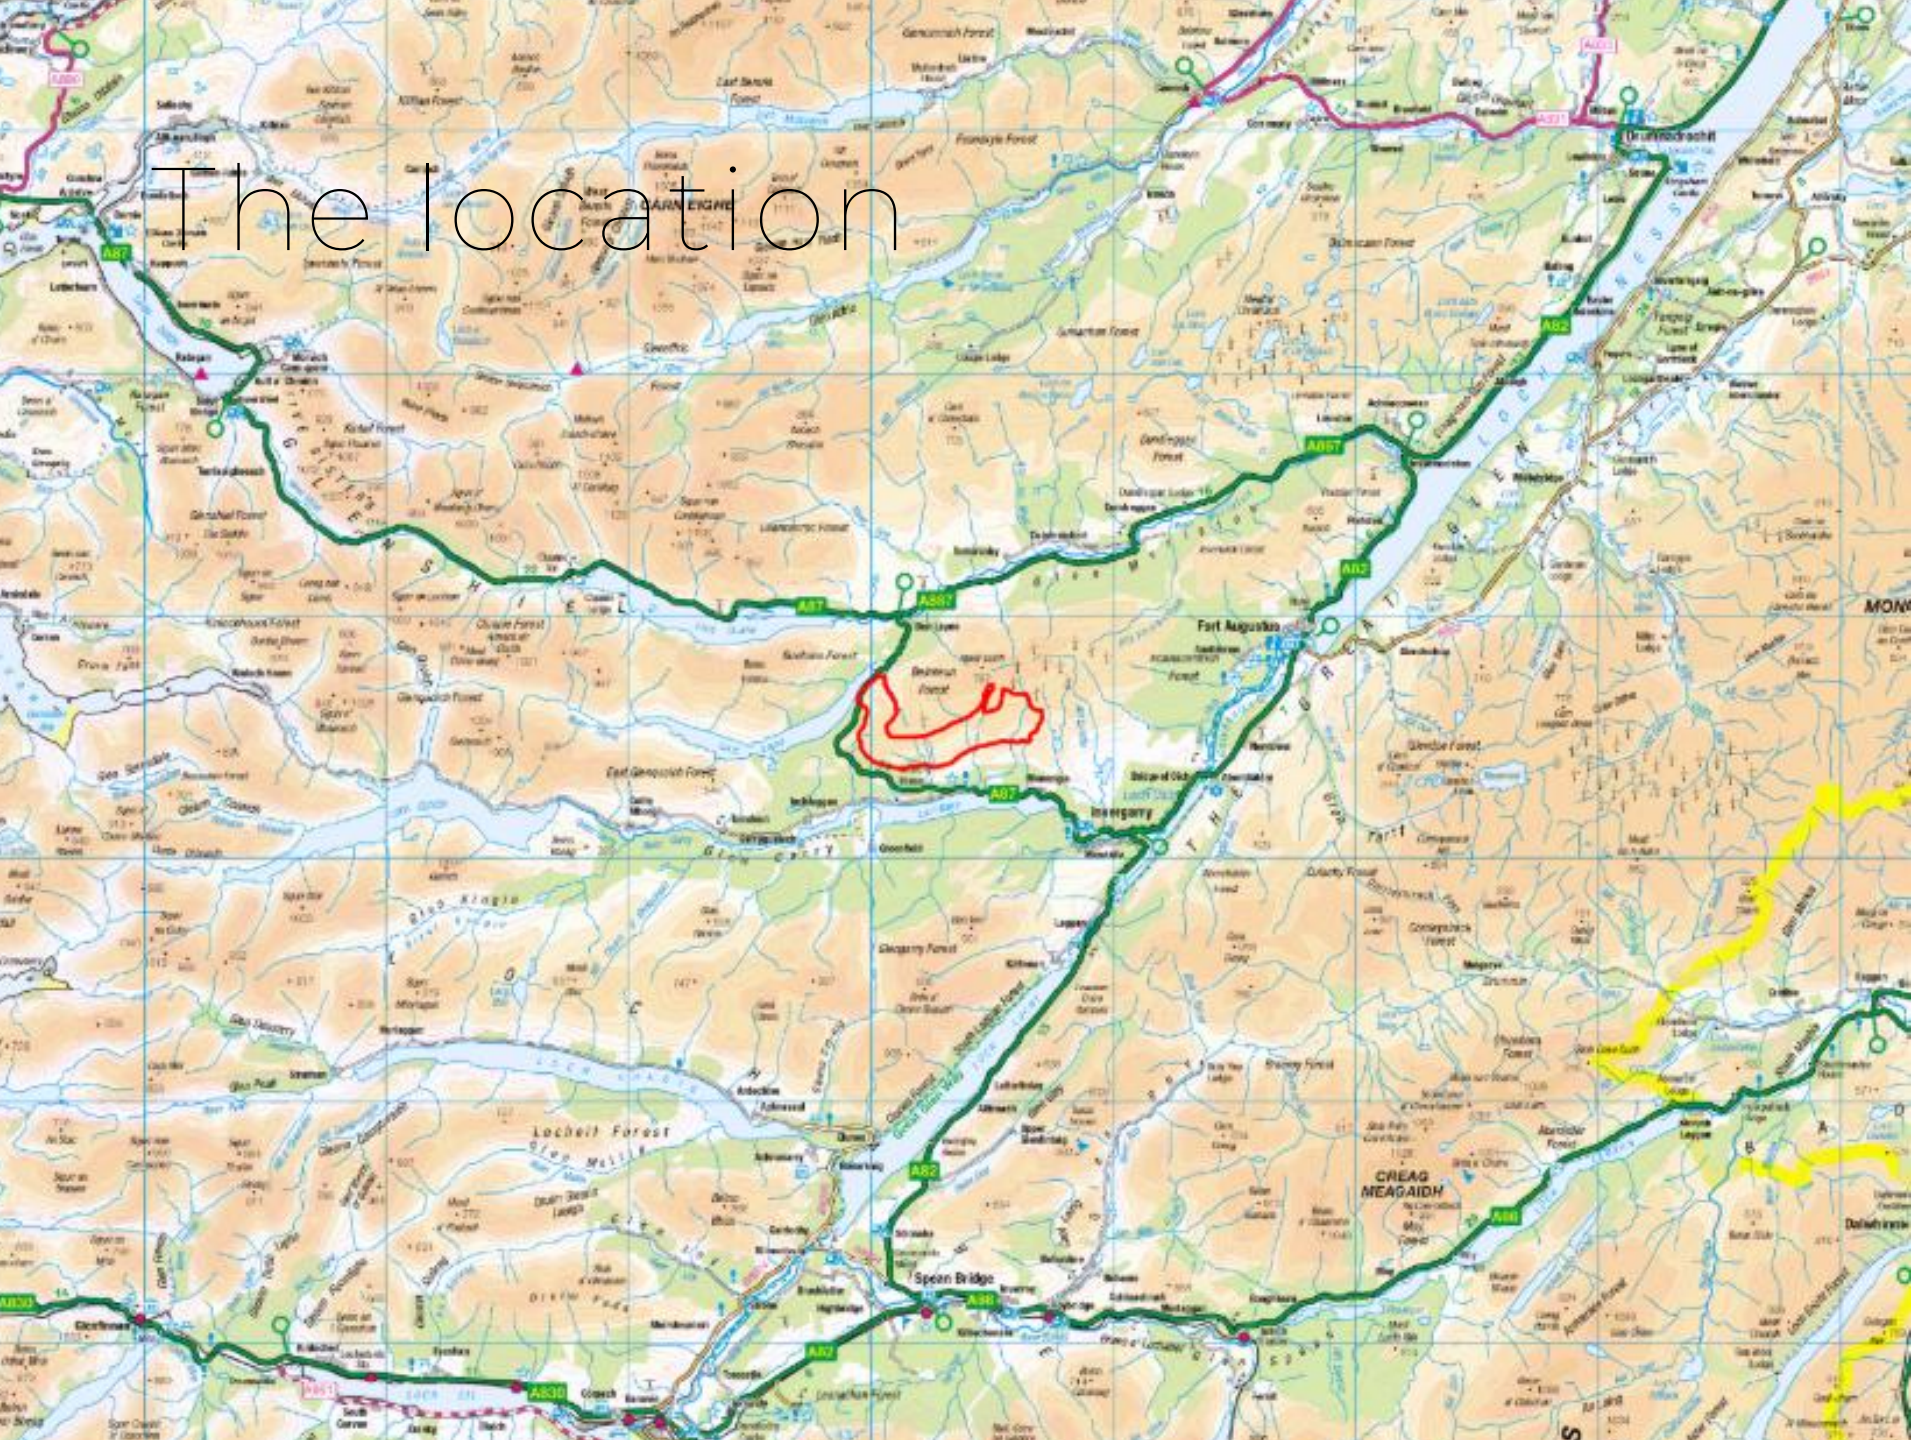

7

A87

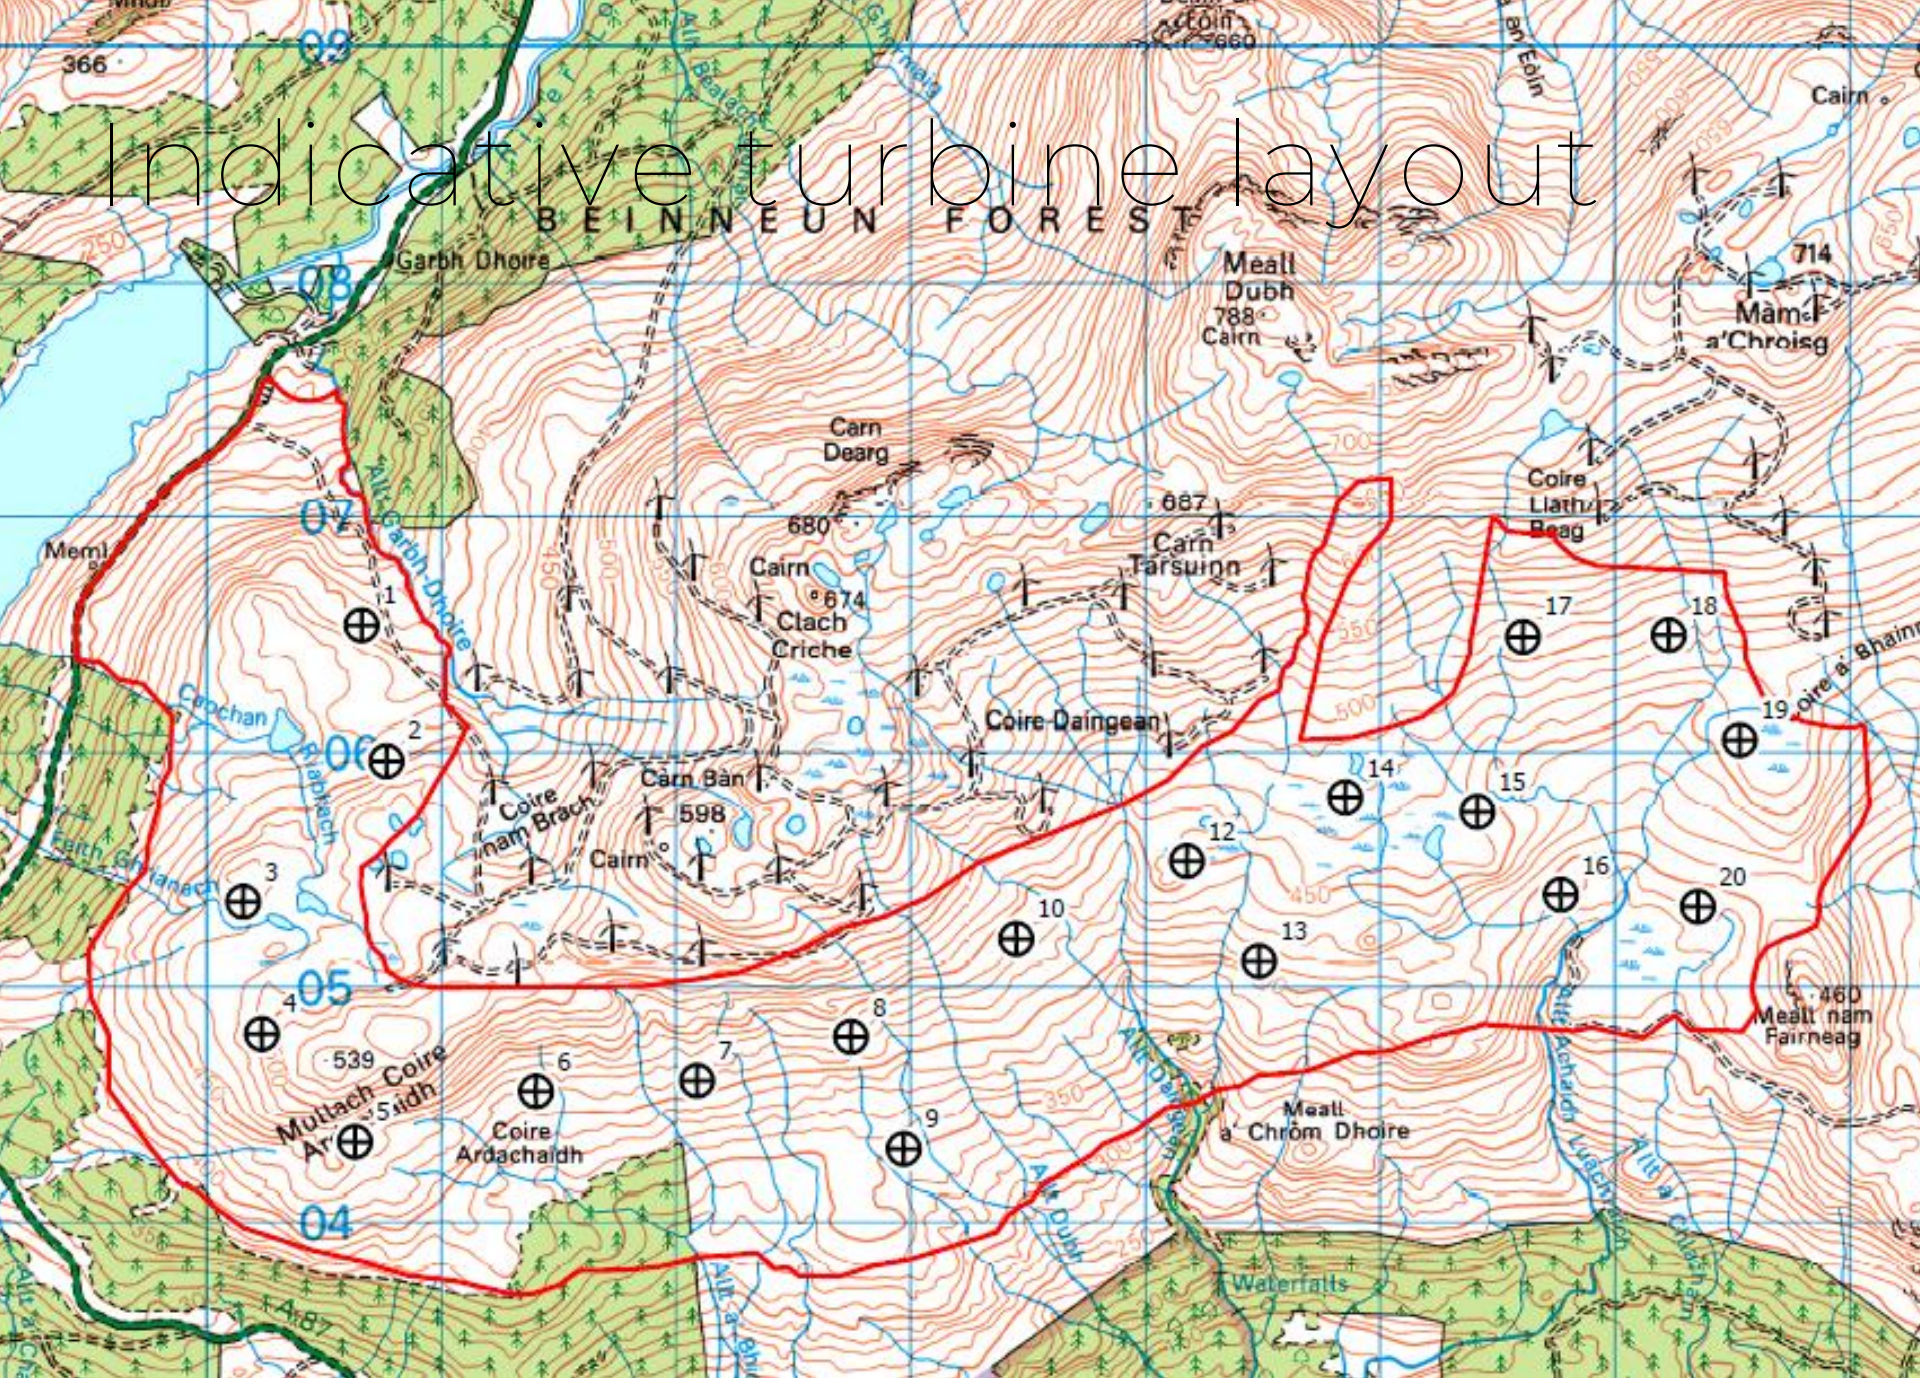

Loch Garry

Invergarry

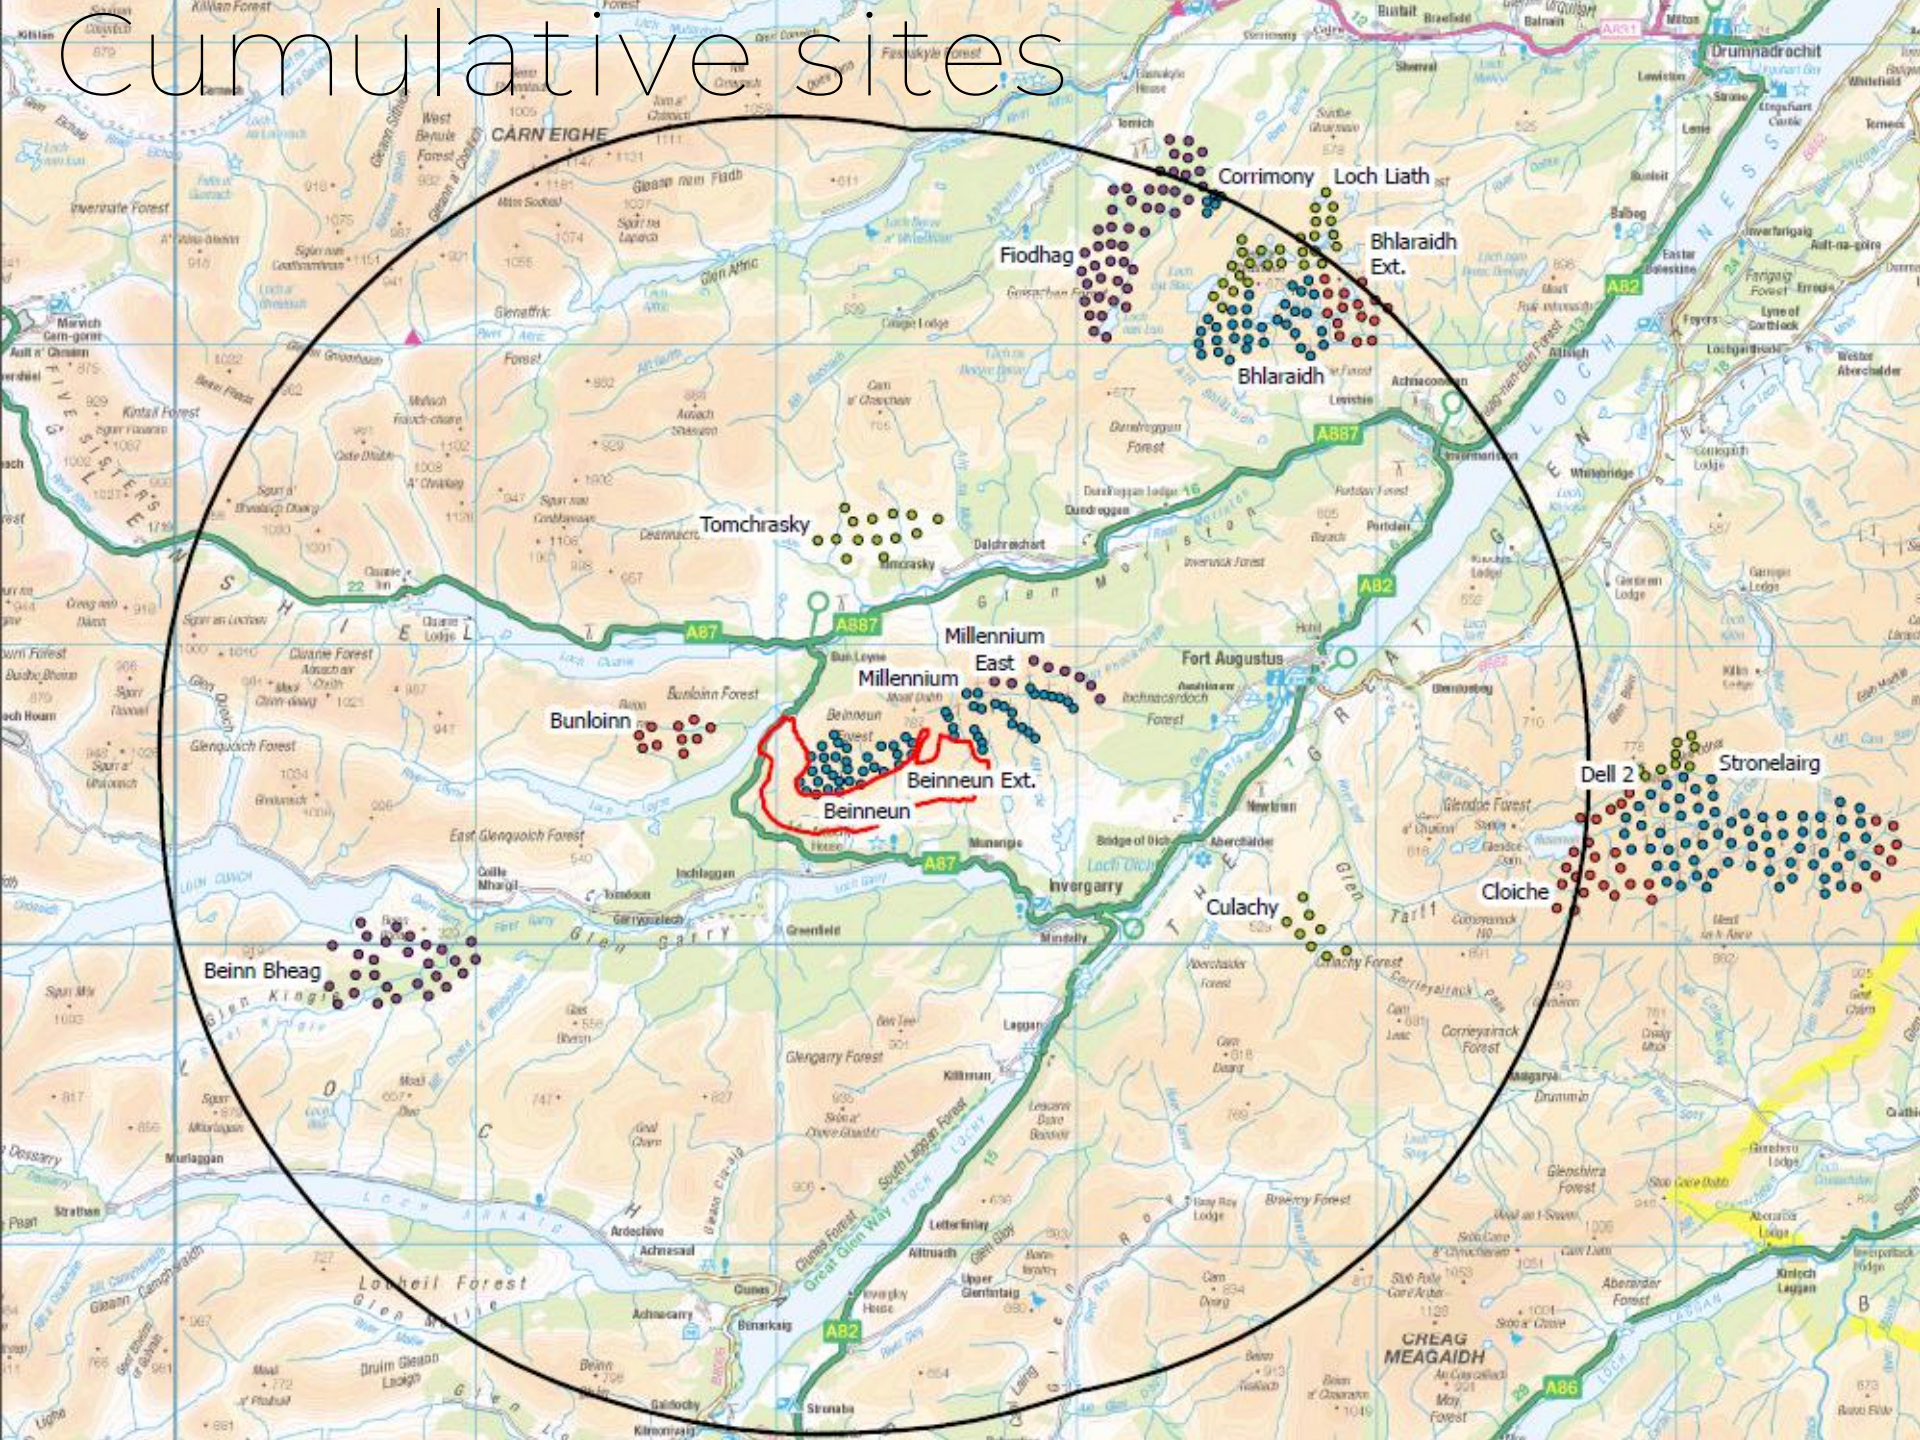

The location

Indicative turbine layout

Cumulative sites

View from A82 from Newtown

View from A87 west of site

View from A87 north of site

View from A87 south of site

View from near Faichemard Farm

Benefits

- Addressing the growing demand for energy
- Generating an additional 125MW to feed to the grid
- Battery energy storage system will cope with peak demand
- An environmental survey will inform the final layout

Thank you

